AUCTION INFORMATION

Welcome to the 38th annual UUCC auction. In this catalog you’ll find description of the many fabulous items being offered this year, thanks to the hard work of our volunteers and the generosity of our donors. There are many new, one of a kind, and never before offered, items to complement those which are back by popular demand. The auction is an exciting event in its own right, so plan to attend for a fun evening where you’ll find:

- Free child care provided by reliable UU babysitters (advance registration for child care is required)
- Light dinner fare is included in the registration fee
- Cash bar – including wine, beer, soft drinks and water.
- Free appetizers, coffee and tea.
- Fabulous Entertainment: Come early and enjoy music by the Chalice Messengers, 4 – 5 pm
- Wonderful volunteers who make the entire event as efficient, enjoyable, and trouble free as humanly possible.

We look forward to seeing you on November 12th! Don’t forget your auction catalog!

There are two parts to the auction: a Vocal auction and a Silent auction. Vocal auction items are listed first in this catalog, followed by the Silent auction items. Silent auction items are grouped into these categories:

- Tangibles. The range of items available is so diverse as to defy description
- Services that draw upon the talents of our congregation
- Gift Certificates to local establishments. Provided by congregation members or by the businesses themselves.
- Food. Unique offerings by members of the congregation, many of which have a mighty reputation so be prepared for aggressive bidding.
- Fixed Price. All you have to do is put your name on the list. Some events are space limited so be sure to visit this part of the auction early. The Fixed Price up category includes movies and many family oriented, modest price, events.
It is highly recommended that you review this catalog and prepare your bidding strategy before auction night. The action during the Vocal auction will be fast and furious. To assist you in finding items and events that you will be interested in, quick reference guides have been prepared and appear before the detailed item descriptions.

SPONSORS: Some of the gift certificates and some services for the auction were donated by local establishments. We thank them and encourage you to show your thanks through your patronage.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SILENT AUCTION

“SILENT AUCTION MULTIPLES”. Some silent auction items can have more than one buyer. In an effort to satisfy the most bidders by selling as many of the offered items available, but at a consistent price for all buyers, we will handle the bidding in a fashion similar to that of the Vocal Auction. That is, multiples of the item will be available to the next highest bidders at the WINNING bid price. This requires additional action when you bid on these multiple buyer items. These actions are as follows:

- Quantity: If you wish to purchase more than one of the item, indicate the quantity of the item you would like to buy if you are a successful bidder. Put the quantity in parentheses next to your bid price. If you are awarded the item, your total cost will be the winning bid price multiplied by the quantity you indicated.

- Awarding Multiples of an Item: If you are not the highest/winning bid, but you are the next highest bidder in line and quantities of the item are still available, what happens? The next highest bidders will be awarded the item at the winning bid price automatically, IF their bid is within $5 of the top bid for an item that goes for $25 or more, OR if their bid is within $3 of the top bid for an item that goes for less than $25. If you, as a bidder, do NOT wish to purchase the item at top bid price, you must place a check under the “NO” column.

- A sample bid sheet will be on display at the auction for your reference.

EVERYTHING HAS TO LEAVE THE BUILDING ON SATURDAY NIGHT!

Buyers: check all your bids to see if you won and take it with you.

Donors: check all your donations and, if they didn’t sell, you must take them away

If you have any questions about bidding on Silent Auction Items, please ask the Silent Auction Coordinator, Randy Raymond.

Special message to Silent Auction Donors: Before you leave, check to see if your item was sold. If it was not, TAKE IT WITH YOU. Do not leave unsold items.

Special message to Silent Auction Bidders: Post-it notes will be placed on the tables indicating the winning paddle number. DO NOT TAKE THE ITEM unless your paddle number is shown.

Non-reimbursement and Tax Deductibility

Non-reimbursement: Occasionally we get requests to reimburse a Donor for an expense associated with an auction item. It is the UUCC Auction policy NOT to reimburse such expenses. However, these expenses may be tax deductible.

Tax Deductibility: In addition to the above, Buyers are allowed to deduct the price of all items purchased, less the Fair Market Value (FMV). This estimate has no bearing for the donor or on the final auction price. An estimate of FMV of donated items and services will be provided by UUCC to donors with their end of year contributions statement.
AFTER THE AUCTION

- Buyers' statements will be available between services on the next two Sundays. They will also be available through the UUCC office.
- Please pay the amount due as soon as possible. Lingering outstanding balances create extra work for your auction volunteers.
- Buyers should examine their statements immediately and bring any problems to the attention of the Auction Committee for adjustment. Auction Committee representatives will be in the lobby between services Nov 15 and Nov 22 to accept payments, to answer questions about statements, and make any necessary adjustments. After that, you can contact them at auction@uucolumbia.net.
- Donors will receive statements approximately 1-2 weeks after the auction by e-mail listing who purchased their items. This statement will include buyers' contact information. Donors: PLEASE do not discard this e-mail - it is your link to your buyers. It is the donor's responsibility to contact buyers in the event of changes in date, time, or other circumstance for an auction event.
- Unsold seats to events can be purchased after the auction on a first come basis. A list of events with available seats will be posted on the auction website approximately two weeks after the auction with purchase instructions.

Guidelines for UUCC Auction Event Postponements & Cancellations

Postponements

If you're a donor, please make every effort to hold auction events on the scheduled date, postponing only when it is unavoidable. It can avoid problems if you provide rain/snow dates when submitting your donation, particularly for events to be held in wintertime. If you do have to reschedule, it's important to inform all 'purchasers' as soon as possible. Please try to reschedule on a date that most people are comfortable with.

If you're a 'purchaser,' please understand that auction donors are members of your UUCC community, and occasionally may have to reschedule an event due to extraordinary circumstances such as snowstorms and illnesses. They will make every effort to avoid changing event dates. If your event does get postponed and you're unable to make the new date, we are sorry that we cannot credit you for the item. You can often find a substitute to attend in your place - people often find that using the listserv or facebook group can be helpful. If your event is postponed and you don't get followup from the donor(s), please reach out to them, and contact the Auction Committee at auction@uucolumbia.net if you can't reach the donor(s).

Cancellations

Donors: If your event must be cancelled altogether, you may want to try to provide a substitute experience. If an event must be cancelled and no substitute event is provided, contact your list of 'purchasers' and the Auction Committee at auction@uucolumbia.net as soon as possible to let them know.

‘Purchasers:’ Once in a great while an event may have to be cancelled altogether - if so, your donors will try to make a creative effort to provide a substitute event. Please work with your donor to achieve a win-win experience for all.

If an event has to be cancelled, you will receive a credit of your donation amount for the next upcoming Auction.

[If you receive word that an event has to be cancelled, you can request a credit of your donation amount to be applied to the next upcoming Auction. You need to request the credit as soon as possible, and in any event at least seven days prior to the next Auction. To make the request, email the Auction Team at auction@uucolumbia.net.]

Max. Buyers: 22

Thelma and Louise (1991). Director: Ridley Scott; starring Susan Sarandon, Geena Davis, Harvey Keitel. Considered by many critics to be the quintessential Strong Women movie: a virtuosic, funny and harrowing classic road movie, with themes of sexual assault and sexual oppression. Ahead of its time, depicting even well-meaning and kindly characters trapped in the web of systemic sexism. Brilliantly acted, with sympathetic and complex characters that draw you in. Sarandon and Davis shared the Best Actress Oscar for their work. FOOD AND DRINK: The event includes light appetizers, snacks or desserts. Vegetarian-friendly. Alcoholic beverages will not be served.
